Numb. 8575.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 27, to Tuesday September 30, 1746.

Kenſington, September 30.

THE following Addreſs of the States of his Majeſty's Iſland of Jerſey, having been tranſmitted to ——— Ruſſel, Eſq; one of the Commiſſioners of the Victualling-Office, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the States of your Majeſty's Iſland of Jerſey.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's ever loyal and faithful Subjects, the States of the Iſland of Jerſey, humbly beg Leave to addreſs your Majeſty, with the greateſt Sentiments of Joy, for the Suppreſſion of the late wicked Rebellion, raiſed in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, againſt your Majeſty our moſt rightful and moſt gracious Sovereign.

Well may we rejoyce on this happy Occaſion, whereon our Religion and Liberties, our Trade, the Credit of the Nation, and in general whatever is dear and valuable to us, is ſecured.

As we are thankful to Almighty God for theſe great Bleſſings, ſo are we warmed with a juſt and grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's Firmneſs and Conſtancy, and the wiſe Meaſures taken by your Majeſty, in Support of the common Cauſe; as alſo the Care and Tenderneſs you have ſhewn for your People, in the Choice of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland to put them in Execution; a Prince prepared for the greateſt Deeds by your Majeſty, under whom he was brought up, and whoſe ſignal Services on this Occaſion well deſerve to be acknowledged and rewarded.

May his Atchievements be as happy in their Conſequences, as they are glorious in their Motives. May your Majeſty long reign over us, and may the Divine Providence diffuſe its Bleſſings through every Branch of your Royal Houſe. We are,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, and moſt loyal Subjects.

From your Majeſty's Iſland of Jerſey, Aug. 30, 1746.

The following Addreſs of the Lieutenant Governor and Council of the Province of Pennſylvania, having been tranſmitted to Thomas Penn, Eſq; has by him been preſented to his Majeſty, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lieutenant Governor and Council of the Province of Pennſylvania.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant Governor and Council of the Province of Pennſylvania, being truly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and gracious Government, humbly beg Leave, with Hearts full of Joy and Gratitude, to preſent our moſt ſincere Congratulations on the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms, under his Royal Highneſs the Duke, in defeating the Rebels in Scotland, and thereby extinguiſhing the Hopes of a popiſh Pretender and his deteſtable Confederates.

If Mercy, Juſtice, and the ſtricteſt Regard and Attention to the Liberties and Intereſts of your Subjects, could have ſecured to your Majeſty a Reign of Peace, your Annals would not have been clouded by a black and moſt unnatural Rebellion: But it is no new Thing for arbitrary Princes to contrive and promote Schemes for the Subverſion of a Government, which is a ſtanding Reproach upon their own; or for wicked Subjects to hate Virtues in a King, which are Reſtraints upon their baſe and ſavage Natures.

May

[Price Two-pence.]

May the Almighty preſerve your Majeſty's precious Life, for the general Good of Mankind; direct your Councils, and confound the Devices of your Enemies: And may there never be wanting one of your Royal Blood, formed upon your Majeſty's Example, to ſway the Britiſh Sceptre, or one to command the Britiſh Armies, in Valour and Conduct equal to the glorious Inſtrument of the late ſignal Victory.

In Council at Philadelphia, the 4th Day of Auguſt 1746.

Richard Peters, Secretary.

Naples, Sept. 6, N. S. In the Evening of the 3d Inſtant, by Orders from Court, an Embargo was laid on all Veſſels actually in the Ports of the Kingdom, and upon thoſe that ſhall arrive, in order to compleat the Number of 120, which are to be employed in tranſporting the King's Troops from the Coaſt of Genoa to this City.

Venice, Sept. 16, N. S. The Letters from Genoa mention an Action between the Piemonteſe and the French near Final, but were uncertain which had the Advantage. This is ſuppoſed to be an Attack of their Rear Guard under M. Mirepoix, who remained with 12 Battalions to cover the Retreat of their Army. The Britiſh Squadron, Part of which was at Savona, and Part near Ventimiglia, have incommoded the French very much in their March, and obliged them to leave the Road along the Riviera, and to march through a very difficult Way over the Mountains. Don Philip and the Duke of Modena are ſuppoſed to be at Nice, where a Palace was ordered to be prepared for their Reception. Six thouſand Waraſdins of the laſt Reinforcements are already arrived at Mantua, and will be ſoon followed by 6000 more, two Regiments of Horſe, and two of Infantry, who are marching with all Diligence through the Tirol. The Imperialiſts are, by the Ammunitions and Proviſions of all Sorts found in the State of Genoa, and by the Contributions levying, as well as by the Numbers of Recruits, and of Deſerters, who are returned to their Colours, in the beſt Condition that can be well imagined.

Fort William, September 21. There is an Account from the Braes of Locharkieg, that laſt Thurſday, about Twelve o'Clock, the Pretender's Son embarked on board a French Ship of War in the ſame Loch in Moydart where he firſt landed, attended by the following Perſons, viz. Macpherſon of Clunie, with others of his Clan; Cameron of Lochiel, Dr. Cameron his Brother, Ludovick Cameron of Torr Caſtle, Allan Cameron, and Macdonald of Lochgary, with many others, whoſe Names were not known. Macdonald of Barriſdale was ſaid to have gone on board before the Pretender's Son got to the Ships.

Kenſington, September 30.

This Day Prince Scherbatow, Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the Czarina, being recall'd, had a private Audience of Leave of his Majeſty, to deliver his Letter of Revocation.

As had afterwards Count Czernichew, his firſt private Audience of his Majeſty, to deliver his Letters of Credence, as Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the Czarina. They were both introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Earl of Harrington, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrel Dormer, Knt. Maſter of the Ceremonies.

September 27, 1746.

WHEREAS the Jane Brigantine, of Eyemouth, in North Britain, Capt. Thomas Kellie, Commander, on or about the beginning of March 1744-5. Old Stile, set sail from Rotterdam in Holland, with a Cargoe of sundry Goods and Merchandizes bound for Eyemouth aforesaid, and North Bergen in Norway, on the Account of several Proprietors or Persons interested in the said Cargoe, as by Bills of Lading and other Credentials when produced it doth and may more fully appear: And whereas soon after, in the Procedure of such intended Voyage, the said Vessel and Cargoe were taken by a French Privateer, and retaken very shortly afterwards by his Majesty's Ship of War the Jamaica, Capt. Jeffreys then Commander; and the same Brig and Cargoe were soon after by him sent into Bridlington Piers in Yorkshire, (except what was consum'd, destroy'd, or imbezzel'd of the said Brig and Cargoe by the Privateer and Ship of War, or the one of them): Now if any Person or Persons (other than such of the Proprietors or Persons who have authoriz'd me, a Merchant of Rotterdam in Holland, to act for them in the Premisses) have or hath any Claim or Demand upon the said Cargoe, or any Part thereof, must make the same on or before the 27th Day of October next, to Mr. John Bland, of Scarbrough in Yorkshire, Merchant, otherwise they, and every of them, will be precluded of all Advantage and Benefit (if any) in the said Cargoe, and every Part thereof.

John Davidson.

WHereas I inserted an Advertisement on the 5th of August last, of a Person being gone to Westchester, or Parts adjacent, and who had frequent Access to my House, to come and clear himself from being a Party concerned in taking out a Licence in the Name of Mary Robinson and Richard Holland; and whereas since that Time, a full Discovery hath been made, that it was another Person who is now in Jail; and the said Person suspected by that Advertisement having made an Affidavit, that he was never made privy to or had any the least Knowledge of the Intentions of the said Mary Robinson, to transact such an Affair; I do hereby acknowledge, and am now fully convinced he has fully cleared himself from the same, and that he was neither directly or indirectly concerned.

Newgate-street, Sept. 27, 1746. Rich. Holland.
